Grab your own toboggan or hire a toboggan at the valley station of the Hochplattenbahn .

With the chairlift you make your way to the Hochplatte. Once at the top, it goes straight downhill again. From the mountain station, the winding toboggan run runs for around three kilometers through the white mountain forest. In parts it also goes quickly. After about 20 minutes you will reach your starting point, the valley station of the Hochplattenbahn in Marquartstein .

In addition to the comfortable ascent with the chairlift, you also have the option of hiking to the mountain station. A beautiful snow-covered forest path leads from the valley station up to the Staffn-Alm . Much joy!
