Blindau car park - children's playground - Klausenbachklamm - Zwerchenbergalm

The starting point of the moderately difficult hike, which requires a certain amount of surefootedness, is the Blindau car park. From the starting point, it is easy to walk along path no. 17 in the direction of the Klausenbergalm. First you walk along a small path behind the houses of Blindau. At the children's playground, turn left and follow the signs to the wildly romantic and impressive Klausenbach Gorge. This leads up to an alpine path to the Klausenbergalm, then left path no. 172 to the Zwerchenbergalm. The Zwerchenbergalm is open from Friday to Monday in the summer months. After a long break, we follow the path back in the direction of the Klausenbergalm, turn right onto hiking trail no. 17 and comfortably head home. The gorge path through the Klausenbach Gorge is an exciting hike, especially in summer and for families, but caution is required on the paths.
