Panorama: Great views from the Berchtesgaden Alps to the Hohe Tauern, as well as into the foothills of the Alps to lake Chiemsee

Recommended equipment: Stable and non-slip trail running shoes, hydration backpack, change of clothing, money for a stop at the hut

Clockwise, past St. Anna's chapel to Upper Hemmersuppenalm, here left in the direction of the Durchkaseralm on a gently sloping trail into the mountain forest. The path leads us steadily uphill, very varied, south to the Durchkaseralm.

Here 180 degrees to the north alternating with only a few meters of altitude over panoramic alpine terrain and later through mountain pine slopes along the Mark-, Lahner- and Eggenalmkogel summits. On the left with constant views towards the main Alpine ridge.

At the Straubinger Haus hut (refreshment stops), follow the hiking trail in the direction of the Hemmersuppenalm to the Hindenburghütte (refreshment stops).
