Route: Inzell - Schmelz - Zwing - Adlgaß - Frillensee - Adlgaß - Einsiedl - Teisenberg - Inzell

This varied mountain bike tour is the most beautiful way to discover Inzell. From a technical point of view, it is child's play, but with a good 20 kilometers it requires a certain level of fitness and stamina. It's a good thing that there are nice "pit stops" waiting at regular intervals. The loop around Inzell and to the Frillensee is the perfect tour for beginners, and is also doable for sporty children and seniors. And with the e-bike, this tour becomes a quick lap after work or on the day of arrival. The best starting point is the Badepark in Inzell. Alternative starting points are Schmelz, Zwing, Adlgaß or Einsiedl. Let's start comfortably across the center of Inzell and on side roads to the district of Schmelz. Here, a nice adventure playground lures you in for a first breather. On a wide, flat and car-free gravel road you drive around the Kienbergl and past the Moaralm through the idyllic Wildenmoos. Soon it's downhill again, at the end over a short, steep descent to the district of Zwing. Under the main road and right back into the peace! Past the Falkensee, combined with a short detour to the Krottensee, you circle halfway around the Falkenstein and crack the hardest nut of this easy tour - the long ascent to the Frillensee. Once at the top, it's all around and in a brisk, shady ride down to the Adlgaß inn. Contemplation and self-reward, of course. Via Einsiedl and Sterr you roll back to Inzell on quiet side roads.

Highlights: The idyllic Wildenmoos at Kienbergl, Falkensee and Frillensee, the mountain forest adventure trail at Frillensee

Variants: Underutilized? Then simply combine this tour with the Inzell village tour (Tour 92)!

Bike & Hike: From the Frillensee on foot to the Steineralm
