The moderately difficult cross-country ski run stretches high up on the Winklmoosalm near Reit im Winkl . In the classic style, it's about five kilometers over the Winklmoosalm. Fantastic views are guaranteed here.

Starting at the mountain station of the gondola lift , you follow cross-country ski trail no. 7. Nestled in the Chiemgau Alps, the cross-border circular trail with some major climbs and descents leads over sunny plateaus and through snow-covered forests. Along the trail you will find two restaurants and a few alpine huts. Past a woodworker's room, the Mösererstube, which is reminiscent of old times, the trail leads back to the starting point.

Whether along the cross-country ski trail or at the starting point, a variety of rest stops await you on the Winklmoosalm . Strengthen yourself with a snack and make yourself comfortable in the cozy dining room.
