Way: Let's go in the direction of Siegsdorf along the B 306. We cross the town and reach Erlstätt via Vachendorf. There we keep left and reach Lake Chiemsee via Innerlohen. Now we turn right and circle the lake via Chieming, Seebruck and Prien. We then drive via Bernau to Grassau, follow the main road to Marquartstein, Staudach and thus reach Bergen. The tour takes us to Siegsdorf with a slight incline. Here we cross the village and get to our starting point via the B 306. Special features: The Chiemsee, the Bavarian Sea, is a highlight in itself. Despite the busy road and the many kilometers, it was a relaxing tour. Refreshments: There are numerous places to stop around the Chiemsee. Tip: Cross the lake by boat, take a detour to the islands and shorten part of the route.
